SEE THE LIGHT

It wasn't until last summer - when I could use the prospect of nail polish as bait - that I was able to clip Laurel's nails while she was awake. Prior to that, I'd crouch in the dark next to her crib, or bend uncomfortably over the rails (an increasingly challenging task as her mattress level lowered...), holding a flashlight in my mouth. Seriously. If this sounds familiar, get yourself a Baby Light & Clip. This cleverly designed baby nail clipper is secured in a casing that provides light, catches clippings, and includes a safe guard to prevent nipping baby's skin.

Want to be one of two winners to receive a Baby Light & Clip? Here's how:

- Visit the Baby Light & Clip retailer page, then email contests@bostonmamas.com (with "Baby Clip" in the subject) and name a location where you can buy the Baby Light & Clip.
- One entry permitted per person; US entrants welcome.
- Entry period closes at midnight EST, Thursday, February 7, 2008.
